saha nā vavatu
saha nau bhunaktu
saha vīryam karavāvahai
tejas vinā vadhīta mastu
mā vidviṣā vahai
om śāntiḥ śāntiḥ śāntiḥ

May He protect us both.
May He take pleasure in us both.
May we show courage together.
May spiritual knowledge shine before us.
May we never hate one another.
May peace and peace and peace be everywhere.

~ W.B. Yeats and śri purohit swāmi

asato mā sadgamaya
tamaso mā jyotirgamaya
mṛtyor mā amṛtam gamaya

From unreality lead me to reality.
From darkness lead me to light.
From death lead me to immortality.

Om Aruṇāchala mama hṛdaye
Śivam bhavāmi mama hṛdaye

Om namaḥ Śivaya gurave

Om Aruṇācala, land of my heart.
Lord Śiva resides in my heart.

I bow to Śiva, the great teacher within.

Om bhūr bhuvah suvah
tatsavitur varenyam
bhargo devasya dhīmahi
dhiyo yo nah prachodayāt

We meditate upon the Divine Light of that adorable Sun of spiritual consciousness. May it stimulate our power of spiritual perception.

~ I. K. Taimni

Om bhūh Om bhuvah Om suvah Om maha
Om janah Om tapah Om satyam

Divine are the seven spheres of existence from the physical to the ultimate reality.

Om tāre tuttāre ture svāhā

Tara, whose name means “star” or “she who ferries across,” is a Bodhisattva of compassion who manifests in female form.

Tāre represents salvation from mundane dangers and suffering.

Tuttāre represents deliverance into the spiritual path conceived in terms of individual salvation.

Lastly, Ture represents the culmination of the spiritual path in terms of deliverance into the altruistic path of universal salvation - the Bodhisattva path.

Follow your heart. Believe in true sight.
Follow true sight. Believe in your heart.
When you follow your heart and believe in true sight you will unlock your treasure and bring it to light.

When you follow true sight and believe in your heart your soul may unfold and will shine forth in gold.

Sitā Rām in your heart, Sitā Ram, Sitā Rām.

Sthiraḥ sukham āsanam

(II,56 The Yoga Sutras of Patanjali)

Posture (should be) steady and comfortable.
The Science of Yoga, I. K. Taimni

Pange lingua gloriósi Córporis mystérium,
Sanguinísque pretiósí, Quem in mundi prétium
Fructus ventris generósi Rex effúdit géntium.

Sing, O my tongue, and praise the mystery of the glorious body and the most precious blood, shed to save the world by the King of the nations, the fruit of a noble womb.

Tantum ergo Sacraméntum venerémur cernui:
et antiquum documéntum novo cedat ritui:
praestet fides suppleméntum sénsuum deféctui.

In the face of so great a mystery, therefore, let us bow down and worship; let precepts of the Ancient Law give way to the new Gospel rite;
and let faith assist us and help us make up for what senses fail to perceive.

Genitóri, Genitóque laus et iubilátio, salus,
honor, virtus quoque sit et benedítio: procedéti
ab utróque compar sit laudātio. Amen.

Unto the Father and the Son, our praise and our joyful singing; unto whom saving power, honor and might, and every holy blessing; and to the Spirit who proceeds from both, an equal tribute of glory. So be it.
